SAUG-FOR-ALL MORNING GROUPS

Each camper selects a small special interest group to remain in throughout the week. Groups provide campers with experiences of learning and personal growth. See morning group descriptions at www.saugforall.org. It's very likely that more groups will be added. E-mail announcements will be sent with any new additions. Please select your 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choices from the list below.

- Expressive Journaling™: Writing and Creating From Your True Self – Lynne Fairchild
- Sing Your Heart Out (and In!) – Julie Austin
- Improv – Len Proctor
- I Am An Artist- Harold Goldfus
- Releasing the past, Living in the Moment, and Accepting Love – William Watson
- Making Mosaic Stained Glass Pictures – Don Spencer
- Author's Boot Camp – Jeanne Ballew
- We've Got Game – Ellen Bernstein
- Spirit Dolls - Steve Mandell and Rita Rousseau
- Daily Practice - Susan Baggarly & Ed Saunders

INVOLVEMENT TEAM SELECTION

Each Saug-For-All camper will be part of a camp involvement team. We'd like your input on which team you'd like to be a member. Following is a listing of the teams and a brief description of each.

Please select a first, second & third choice. You will be notified of your team assignment upon arrival at camp.

- Moving Team – breaks down tables and chairs for the evening events in the dining hall.
- Hospitality Team - help prepare snacks, clean up
- Shopping Team - This will involve approximately 1-1/2 hours of your time for one afternoon. Must have a car.
- Breakfast Set-up Team - set tables for breakfast each day. The breakfast team will also set tables and chairs back up from the previous evening.
- Lunch Set-up Team - set tables for lunch each day.
- Dinner Set-up Team - set tables for dinner each day.
- Odd Job Team Do those jobs that don't fit into any neat category. Straighten porch & mailbag materials, carry firewood down to the beach for campfires, and other miscellaneous odd jobs.
- Contribution Team - I can best contribute monetarily. I am adding $50 to my camp fee.
- I'm willing to be the team leader for my involvement group.
